

this Playful Home.

We believe...

.....
QUANTITY

... in all aspects of life

Play IS learning.

WHEN WE ALLOW OUR CHILDREN TO PLAY FREELY AND IMAGINATIVELY THEY ARE LEARNING

THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS BAD WEATHER, JUST THE WRONG CLOTHES*
GET OUTSIDE MORE

in most cases - we're obviously not endorsing going out in extreme weather conditions :)*

Play is an innate desire and not just a way to fill time between scheduled activities

It all begins with Play

Comparison is the thief of joy:

DO NOT COMPARE YOUR JOURNEY TO

Childhood should be about building dens, jumping in muddy puddles and climbing trees... Let the kids get messy!

THE PERFECT PARENT
IS A MYTHOLOGICAL BEING. WE ARE ALL ALWAYS LEARNING SO EMBRACE BEING IMPERFECT

We learn.
We grow.
We do better - *all the time!

CHILDREN DON'T NEED TO BE MICRO-MANAGED

You do not need to entertain your children 24/7

Kids need to be bored - this is when the magic happens!
Creativity is often driven out of boredom
